Mission

FEI's mission is to advance the success of senior-level financial executives, their organizations, and the profession.

FEI is a 15,000 member strong professional organization comprised of successful senior-level financial executives joined together to advance their success, their organization and the profession.

Donate to the FEI Houston Scholarship Foundation

Each year the Houston Chapter distributes educational scholarships through our 501(c)(3) FEI Houston Scholarship Foundation (FHSF). FHSF supports higher education and training in the fields of finance and accounting. Members can donate through National, at any FEI Houston event, or by check to:
FEI Houston Scholarship Foundation,
P.O. Box 32, Bellaire, TX 77402

Why FEI?

- Want connection with top business leaders such as CEO's of Fortune 500 companies?
- Want elite peer networking on a first name basis with collaborative thought leaders such as CFO's and CAO's of Fortune 1000 companies?
- Want access to the latest information to expand knowledge such as new standards and tax updates from Washington?
- Want a voice in setting regulation standards such as joining a committee which provides guidance on national standards?

If you answered YES, then it's time to join. We have over 30 professional development and networking programs to fit your needs.
